MEET NINNI PEZZA

Your professor for the course

Born in the cultural heart of Pompei on June 14, 1988, Antonino Ninni Pezza's (known on stage as Ninni Pezza) journey as a musician commenced at the tender age of 13 when he first strummed a guitar. After a period of self-discovery, he delved into formal music studies.

Over the years, he embraced formal music studies under the tutelage of esteemed masters, immersing himself in classical guitar, theory, harmony, solfeggio, and modern guitar techniques. Ninni's dedication to music has allowed him to work with renowned artists, perform on European venues, and inspire aspiring musicians through his role as an educator.

Academic Qualifications:

- A three-year degree (vecchio ordinamento) in "Music Theory, Solfeggio, and Music Dictation" from the Conservatorio di Salerno G. Martucci, obtained as a private student.
- A three-year diploma from the CPM Music Institute in "Contemporary Guitar Styles," focusing on rock, blues, and jazz.
- A degree in Popular Music, specializing in Pop-Rock, from the Conservatorio G. Verdi in Milan.
